

Colorado Voting Laws

In Colorado, most people with a criminal background can vote.

As of July 1, 2019,
if you are on parole in Colorado you can register to vote and vote!

You can learn more and register to vote at www.votingwithconviction.org

YOUR VOICE MATTERS!
MAKE FREEDOM COUNT!
REGISTER TO VOTE AND VOTE!

In Colorado, most people with a criminal record can vote!

KNOW THE LAW!

For more information on registering to vote go to www.votingwithconviction.org

YES

You CAN vote in Colorado if:

- You are on parole or federal supervised release
- You have a past criminal conviction and have served your sentence.
- You are a pretrial detainee in jail - or on bond or summons awaiting trial
- You are on probation for a misdemeanor or felony
- You are currently serving a sentence in jail for a misdemeanor
- You were sentenced by a court to the halfway house (i.e. diversion client)

NO

You CANNOT vote in Colorado while:

- You are incarcerated for a felony in a jail or prison
- You are on DOC inmate status living in a community corrections halfway house or are on non-residential status living in community

??

Please contact CCJRC or an elections official in your county of residence if you have any questions about your right to register to vote and vote.

CCJRC • 303-825-0122 • www.ccjrc.org • info@ccjrc.org